Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan

Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan was one of the most distinguished diplomats, scholars and teachers of India, apart from being the first Vice President and the second President of the country. As a tribute to this great teacher, his birthday is observed as Teachers' Day across India. As a matter of fact, when his students and friends asked him for the permission to celebrate his birthday, it was he who asked them to celebrate the day as Teachers' Day, honoring the efforts of teachers across the country.

Birth & Education

Dr. S Radhakrishnan was born on September 5, 1888, at Tiruttani, forty miles to the northeast of Chennai (then Madras), in South India. His early years were spent in Tiruttani and Tirupati, both famous as pilgrim centers. He graduated with a Master's Degree in Arts from Madras University. In April 1909, he was appointed to the Department of philosophy, at the Madras Presidency College. From then onwards, he was engaged in a serious study of Indian philosophy and religion, and went on to become a teacher of Philosophy.

Professional Life

In 1918, Doctor Radha Krishnan was appointed as the Professor of Philosophy, in the University of Mysore. Three years later, he was appointed as a Professor to King George V Chair of Mental and Moral Science in the University of Calcutta. Dr. Radhakrishnan even represented the University of Calcutta at the Congress of the Universities of the British Empire in June 1926 and the International Congress of Philosophy at the Harvard University in September 1929. Dr. Radhakrishnan was invited to take the post vacated by Principal J. Estlin Carpenter, in Manchester College, Oxford. In Oxford, Dr. Radhakrishnan lectured the students on Comparative Religion. From 1936-39, he served as the Spalding Professor of Eastern Religions and Ethics at Oxford University. In 1939, he was elected Fellow of the British Academy. From 1939-48, he was the Vice-Chancellor of the Banaras Hindu University. He later held offices that dealt with India's national and international affairs. He was the leader of the Indian delegation to UNESCO during 1946. Dr. Radhakrishnan served as the Ambassador of India to U.S.S.R. during 1949-52. He was also a member of the Constituent Assembly of India.

His Works

Dr. Radhakrishnan penned down a number of books during his lifetime. Some of which are like The Hindu View of Life, The Idealist View of Life, Religion and Society, Eastern Religions and Western Thought and A Source Book in Indian Philosophy. He had also written for some of the most reputed international journals.

Presidency of India

Dr. Radhakrishnan was the Vice-President of India from 1952 to 1962 and the President, General Conference of UNESCO, from 1952 to 1954. He held the office of the Chancellor, University of Delhi, from 1953-62. In May 1967, Dr. Radhakrishnan became the President of India, a post he served till May 1967. He was honored with Bharat Ratna in 1954. He was also knighted by the British government in the year 1931, but, he used only his academic title 'Doctor' throughout his life.

Teachers' Day

His birthday is celebrated in India as Teachers' Day on 5 September every year. Teachers' Day in India is celebrated on September 5, every year. Indian Teachers' Day is dedicated to Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, who was a staunch believer of education and was one of the greatest scholars and teachers of all times, apart from being the President of India. As a tribute to this great teacher, his birthday is observed as Teachers' Day in India. This is not a holiday but is known for celebrations across the country. It marks the birth anniversary of former Indian President and teacher Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan. During his tenure as a President, he was approached by his students and friends and was asked to celebrate 5th September, his birthday. He rather told them to observe this day as the Teachers' Day. From then onwards, this day is celebrated as the Teachers' Day.

The main purpose behind Teachers' Day celebration is to make the teachers feel special about themselves. It is the time to show that you appreciate the efforts taken by them, to shape your career and channelize your knowledge to be utilized in the right way.

FROM CHAIRPERSON'S LAPTOP

The philosophy of Tarkeshwar Narain Agrawal Teachers' Training College is to provide meaningful contribution in areas of Teacher Education that encompasses the overall development of the state which is one of the most important factors for general prosperity and progress. Today there is an urgent need to create a pool of teachers' training with commitment and dedication in the areas of better teaching in the school, to become national leaders in the field of teacher education. We have to define our priorities in training students and teachers' to meet the challenges of modern society. It is in keeping with this mission that we have established Tarkeshwar Narain Agrawal Teachers' constant effort and commitment. We assure you that we shall continue move in this direction so that Bihar.

But this ambitious objective cannot be achieved without qualified, efficient and experienced teachers with total commitment to their duty, With this end in view we have tried our best to recruit teachers who are fully equipped with knowledge, experience and skills, who in turn will inculcate these values in the students who will be the future teachers' Side by side with the quality of teachers proper and adequate infrastructure with healthy ambience is also equally important. Located almost by the side of Ara-Mohania National Highway in pollution free rural environment on a plot of about one acre in the midst of nature, our institute meets this requirement sufficiently well. But we don't intend to rest with our laurels. Perfection, in fact, cannot be achieved in a day or two. It needs our institute attains heights of excellence and develops into an ideal centre of teachers training.

With best wishes.
