6.4.3 Institutional strategies for mobilization of funds and the optimal utilization of resources are in place.

Response:

Regular and consistent budgeting and auditing processes are used.

The college's funding sources are reliable and well known. To guarantee the distribution of necessary finances for all college activities, financial planning is done. Based on approved financial management practises, the college adheres to financial requirements. It allocates all expenses that are still observable. It upholds all regulatory restrictions and preserves transaction transparency in the financial industry.

The college funds itself and receives no grants for running the programme. The only sources of income are the fees collected from students in accordance with NCTE and affiliated university regulations. The college's yearly budget includes the specifics.
