Response: -

Due to the professional nature of the courses offered at the institution, formation of Student Council is not permitted at However, two class representatives- male and female- are elected for every class and section who assist the teachers in all activities. In addition, Students are divided into four houses for all co-curricular activities and house leaders four are elected from among the student four each house. These class representatives and house leaders take the role of representing the interests and opinions of the students to the faculty and college administration. The students are represented in various academic and administrative committees of the institution such as:

- Campus Management Cell
- Anti- tobacco Club
- Equal opportunity Cell
- Internal Quality Assurance Cell Assembly Committee
- Library Committee
- Co-curricular Activity Cell
- Canteen Management Cell

- Community Mobilization and Development Cell

These cells organize various activities and the students are expected to be present when meetings are called upon. Following the faculty concerned with the activities, students work on necessary tasks accordingly.
